

A black and white cartoon illustration. On the left, a woman with blonde hair, wearing a horizontally striped sweater, is gesturing with her right hand while talking. On the right, a man with glasses and a bow tie, wearing a striped shirt, stands behind a counter. A sign on the counter reads "FRESH HOLIDAY GEESE SALE!". The woman is handing a small object, possibly a coin or a card, to the man. There are three speech bubbles: one from the woman on the left, one from the man, and one from the woman on the right.
